

JOB DESCRIPTION

Position: Continuous Casting Machine Operator
Division: Thordon Bearings
Reports to: Thordon Production Manager
Date Created: September 28, 2018

Objective: To train in safe operation/maintenance of process machine

Position Requirements

- Setup and operate processing machine
- Retrieve and setup of molds for processing
- Ensure the work area is kept clean and safe of hazards
- Maximize efficiencies of production
- Keep machine in good working order through schedule preventative maintenance
- Understand the principles of ISO
- Responsible for adhering to all Safety Policies & Procedures.
- Other duties as assigned

Health & Safety and other Corporate Values

TBI is fully committed to providing a safe and healthy workplace that complies with all applicable standards and regulations for our employees and anyone that may attend our facilities worldwide. The employee shall:

- Adhere to the OSH Act, the regulations, guidelines and the Company rules as they relate to Health and Safety
- Abide to Company's Policies and Procedures, and use the Corporate Values and Culture as a guide for business growth
- Be familiar with handling materials and equipment used in daily activities
- Be aware of possible hazards in an industrial setting
- Act quickly in reaction to situations, following the instructions in the Company's Health and Safety Program

QUALITY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Be aware of Company's Quality Policy and T-G corporate Values and Culture Comments
- Be open minded and bring forward new ideas to continuously improve our processes
- Participate in problem solving investigations and addressing corrective actions as well as developing preventative actions (risk reduction)
- Follow department procedures and work instructions.
- Notify Quality Control of nonconforming products.
- Notify Quality Control and/or Manufacturing of drawing issues.
- Maintain product identification and material traceability as per applicable procedures.
- Perform in-process and/or final inspections as per applicable procedures and/or work instructions.
- Report machine or equipment problems to the Department Manager or designate.
- Participate in or help continuous improvement teams improve processes.
- Ensure preventative maintenance requirements are clearly identified and completed as scheduled

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities Required

- Mechanical Aptitude or mechanical maintenance skills
- Previous experience working with casting chemicals preferred
- WHMIS (2015)
- Basic ISO awareness
- Good problem solving skills
- Good communication skills
- Good housekeeping skills
- Health & Safety – safe work habits
- Ability to work with rotating 12 hours shifts
- Ability to read measuring tools like micrometers, calipers and perform basic math calculations
- Good eye and hand coordination
- Ability to identify and solve the problems as they arise

Minimum Qualifications:

Min. 5 years' experience
Mechanical troubleshooting skills
Must be able to work shifts